

I believe that the Indiana law regarding the do-not-call list should remain the same. I do not enjoy being harassed by pushy, persistent telemarketers and the do-not-call list was the best thing Indiana has done for the tax payers in a very long time. Leave it as it is. More people will opt to use cell phones and have home lines disconnected.